AUSTRO-GERMANS TAKE LEMBERG

MEXICAN GENERAL CALLS YANKEES "BLUFFS"

CAPTURE GALICIAN CAPITAL AFTER LONG, DESPERATE FIGHTING

Berlin, June 23. (By Wireless to Sayville).—Lemberg, capital of Galicia, has been conquered after a severe battle, according to an official report from headquarters of the Austro-German army. The Galician capital fell before the advance of the second army.

Lemberg was occupied by the Russians on Sept. 2, 1914, about one month after the outbreak of hostilities, in the course of the early Russian drive into Austria. It has therefore been in Russian control for over ten months.

For the past twenty days, since the Austro-Germans took Przemyśl from the forces of Emperor Nicholas, it has been the objective of a series of fierce concerted attacks on the part of the Teutonic allies. The capture of Lemberg was one of the earliest successes of the Russians. Following it they pushed onward rapidly through Galicia.

The high water mark of the invasion found almost all of the province in their hands. They approached within striking distance of Cracow, at the western end of the province close to the German frontier, stormed the heights and passed of the Carpathian mountains which separate Galicia from Hungary; and to the east, swept down through the crown land of Bukovina to the Rumanian frontier.

All this has been changed by the steady succession of Austro-German victories of the last few weeks. The change began with the launching of the great drive from Cracow eastward.

Great numbers of German troops were sent in to assist the Austrians, as well as a vast amount of field artillery. The use of artillery by the Teutonic allies has been described by correspondents as on a scale never before undertaken. Its effectiveness was relatively increased by the shortage of shells on the part of the Russians which is believed to have contributed largely to the weakening of their resistance. The Austro-German allies pushed passes of the Carpathian mountains.

60,000 Russians, Nine Guns Are Captured

Berlin, June 23.—(By wireless to Sayville).—The news that Lemberg has been carried by Austria and German troops is being received here today with jubilation in Berlin. Thousands of people crowd the public squares and parks, flags are being displayed from windows and bands are playing patriotic airs. Extra editions of the newspapers are being shouted on the streets and the church bells are ringing. Everybody feels that another great step in the direction of final victory has been gained.

A special correspondent of the Cologne Gazette telegraphs that the Russians before the general retreat began, hurriedly sent back all the artillery they could move. This was done instead of endeavoring to cover the retreat of the artillery and save all of it. Part of the cannon were useless on account of the poor ammunition. Continuing, the correspondent says:

"It was after the artillery had been sent to the rear that the panic-stricken troops began their flight. Wagons and supply trains blocked the roads. Men detached the horses from these vehicles and rode away on them. Generals and colonels were helplessly carried away. Units were disbanded and the army became a mere mob. It was readily seen that the catastrophe was unavoidable."

A report given out today sets forth that since June 12, 60,000 Russian soldiers and nine Russian guns have been captured.

ZEPPELINS ATTACK ENGLISH ARSENAL

Berlin, June 23.—(By wireless to Sayville).—The Overseas News Agency today gave out the following:

A message from Christiana says that the steamer Totum, which has arrived at Stavanger reports that several Zeppelins several nights ago dropped many bombs on the Armstrong works at South Shields, England, which destroyed the navy yards and arsenal. Several buildings burned all night. The damage was enormous. Seventeen persons were killed and 40 injured.

The foregoing evidently refers to the raid of Zeppelins over the northeast coast of England on Tuesday night of last week. The publication of details of this raid and there has been no previous information that the naval works at Shields were damaged. An official announcement from London on June 16 said merely that sixteen persons had been killed and 40 injured and that fires started by bombs were overcome the morning following the attack. The announcement did not say what town had been attacked. Shields, on the bank of the Tyne, has vast docks and is a great seat of the shipbuilding and subsidiary industries. The Armstrong works are at Elswick yard near Shields. The Armstrong company in addition to its shipbuilding yards has extensive ordnance works and steel works. The company employed 25,000 men before the war.

Here's Democrat Who Is Indicted

STEAMER IS SUNK

London, June 23.—The steamer Tunisiana has been torpedoed off Lowestoft by a German submarine. Her skipper was able to beach her.

The Tunisiana was bound from Montreal to Hull with 5,000 tons of wheat. Her crew landed at Lowestoft.

EIGHT HURT IN SMASH

Cleveland, June 23.—Eight persons, six of them women, were injured, one seriously, when two automobiles collided at midnight last night in the eastern end of the city. The injured are: Miss Eugenia Rieger, 30, right leg fractured, body cut, internal injuries, serious; Alfred Wells, head cut; Mrs. Charles Mook, head cut; Charles Mook, body bruised; Mrs. Harry Powell, legs lacerated; Miss Julia Marks, hip lacerated; Mrs. William Halle, cuts about the body; Mrs. Sam'l Rieger, cuts about the head. Three men in the machines were not hurt.

MAKES DENIAL

Washington, June 23.—Official denial of the story that Japan was prevented from sending 100,000 troops to Europe by an unofficial hint to Great Britain from Washington was made today.

FIVE DIE, DAMAGE IS $1,000,000 IN 'QUAKE IN VALLEY

Calexico, Calif., June 23.—Further earthquake shocks were felt here today. Several tremors after midnight were followed by a severe shock at 10 o'clock this morning.

El Centro, Calif., June 23.—An earthquake shook up the Imperial Valley of California last night, killed five persons, caused damage estimated at $1,000,000 in the valley's little cluster of towns, and left almost undamaged the great irrigation system which transformed the valley from a desert to a fertile farming country.

El Centro suffered more than any other town. The five killed were caught in falling walls at Mexicali, just across the border. Martial law was proclaimed there.

Buildings in every city in the valley have been damaged. Calexico suffered severely from fire.

Twelve to twenty persons were reported to have lost their lives, but the reports were unconfirmed. Practically all the dead were said to be at Mexicali, the little adobe town consisting principally of gambling halls, saloons and other resorts not permitted on the American side that lies across the border from Calexico.

The seismic disturbances, it is believed, originated somewhere in the Coast Range mountains, in the backbone of lower California. Today the cluster of little cities in the Imperial Valley are partly in ruins. The buildings were rent asunder. The first shock was the most severe. Two others followed. After the first shock the stricken towns were in darkness, except for the light furnished by blazing buildings. The greatest confusion reigned everywhere. Ranchers and city residents who had homes last night, found themselves today in open fields, beside roadways or irrigation ditches.

THAW TAKES STAND IN INSANITY TRIAL

New York, June 23.—Harry K. Thaw took the stand today as the first witness in the trial before a jury to determine his sanity.

Before Thaw was permitted to testify Deputy Attorney General Cook asked to be heard on behalf of the state. Mr. Cook declared the state had no interest in the case other than to determine whether Thaw was insane and a menace to society. "We will show you that he is suffering from incurable insanity," said the state attorney. Mr. Cook declared that he would show that Thaw's mother was suffering from nervous prostration when he was born. This fact, said the attorney, had affected Thaw all of his life.

"We will show you that in his childhood Thaw talked gibberish and that his teachers had to talk his language," he said.

Thaw's paranoia was evidenced throughout his youth, he asserted. Thaw, he continued, had hidden behind the skirts of Evelyn Nesbit, who was the only witness that had testified as to the depravity of Stanford White. Thaw was then called to the stand. Mr. Stanfield began to question him in a low tone of voice and Thaw answered in equally inaudible tones. He identified his mother, sister and brother, who were sitting in the court room at the request of the attorney.

Thaw was taken over the history of his escape to Canada and his subsequent movements.

Mr. Stanfield asked the witness to give names, dates and places in great detail, and this Thaw did without hesitation. Mr. Stanfield then turned the witness over to the state attorney, but Deputy Attorney General Cook announced that he would not cross-examine at this time. Thaw was then excused and with grave demeanor returned to his seat at the counsel table.

NINETY-TWO FURNISH BOND IN INDIANA

Indianapolis, Ind., June 23.—Ninety-two of the 128 men, who were indicted on charges of conspiracy to commit felony in violation by the county grand jury, had surrendered and given bond today and bonds were ready for eleven more. Three others already were in custody. This left only 22 capias in the hands of Sheriff George V. Coffin still to be served. As it was said at the sheriff's office that some of the defendants were out of the city, it probably will be several days before the entire 128 have been served in the case.

Charles W. Miller, former district attorney for Indiana, who prosecuted the dynamite conspiracy case, and Michael Ryan, John Hucklehaus and Henry Spann, well known criminal lawyers of the state appeared today before Judge James A. Collins of the criminal court and resisted copies of the indictment. They said they represented practically all of the defendants. The court ordered the indictment printed and instructed that a copy be given each defendant. These probably will be ready for distribution next Saturday when the attorneys for the defendants will meet with Judge Collins.

Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman for Indiana, who, with Mayor Joseph E. Bell and Chief of Police Samuel B. Perrott, head the list of those indicted in prominence, remained in the city today and continued his efforts to see "that all the boys were taken care of" as he expressed it last night.

DECLARES HE WON'T BE INTIMIDATED BY AMERICAN THREATS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press)

Mexico City, June 5.—President Wilson's recent declaration on the Mexican question has created a sensation in this capital and throughout the federal district. The public is warm in its praise of the spirit of fair mindedness and friendship shown by the American executive, but the military leaders are somewhat careful in their comment. President Garza has received the following letter on the subject from General Eufemio Zapata, brother of General Emiliano Zapata. It can be taken as a sample of what some of the revolutionists think in this connection:

"Guadalupe, June 1, 1915.

"Answering your message of today referring to intervention, can only say that we are Mexicans. Two times before this (Continued On Page Six)

BRITISH REPLY REACHES AMERICA

Washington, June 23.—Great Britain's further memorandum to the United States of the British order in council as it effects neutral shipping reached the state department from Ambassador Page at London. Sir Edward Grey delivered it to the American ambassador yesterday. Secretary Lansing had not gone over the memorandum today and it was not known whether it would be construed as a reply to the last communication.

MILITIA STILL GUARDS GOVERNOR'S HOME

Atlanta, Ga., June 23.—The guard of militia and extra deputy county police still surrounded Governor Slaton's country home and no intimation was given as to when it would be withdrawn.

Those most bitterly opposed to the governor's action in commuting the death sentence of Leo M. Frank to life imprisonment ceased their demonstrations with the dawn of yesterday and all has been quiet both near the governor's home and in the city since.

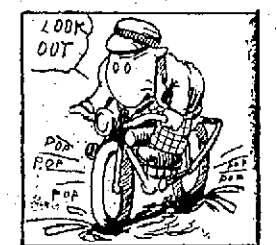

Governor Slaton went to his office yesterday for the first time since Saturday and was expected to appear at the capital again today when the legislature convenes. The governor stated that the guard was maintained about his home to prevent possible damage to his property.

SHIP HELD UP

New York, June 23.—The steamer Noordam reached here today from Rotterdam with 284 passengers after having been detained three days at Deal by British warships. Passengers said that no one was removed from the vessel and that the mails and cargo were not disturbed. No explanation, they said, was given for the detention.

GOES TO CARNEGIE

Carl Hyland, who has been employed by Walter McCarty, a local grocer, has resigned and has gone to Carnegie, Pa., to locate.

This weather is what I call "go-in" some. Nice balmy cool breezes—just enough heat and wind to be nice and comfortable without exertion. It's just what I've been aiming for all along so I've been pardonable pride in giving my own horn a little tool. Under the circumstances I can't help it. Here's the dope for tomorrow:

Ticket Campaign For The Chautauqua On In Earnest

"Chautauqua" is to be the chief theme in Portsmouth for the next two weeks. R. W. Laughlin, nine-day man for the Redpath Company, has arrived and from now until the opening day he will be busy placing advertising matter and otherwise assisting the Federation of Women's clubs under whose auspices the ticket campaign is being conducted.

Artistic souvenir programs, automobile pennants, dusters and banners, window cards, pennant streamers, Chautauqua hats and other supplies will be distributed by Laughlin, and nothing will be left undone in the campaign for a record-breaking week of worth while entertainments.

Systematically and extensively the Chautauqua dates and attractions are being announced in surrounding territory and it is expected that many visitors will be in the city during the week. It will be a home-coming event for many former residents, and local people will avail themselves of the opportunity to provide high class entertainment for themselves and guests.

It is probable that an auto parade will be held within the next few days, at which time it is expected that nearly 100 cars will be suitably decorated and in line for a booster trip. Other novel events are being planned by local people who have made possible the Chautauqua.

The seven-day program begins July 2 in York Park and some of the chief attractions are the Ben Greet Players, Fernillo's band, Dr. Frank W. Gussak, Mirens A. Kellerman, dramatic hurricane, Packard the cartoonist, Dr. Herbert L. Willett, Reno, the magician, Edwin M. Whitney, reader, the American Male Quartet, George L. McNutt, the "Dinner-Phil Man," the Military Girls, Harry F. Atwood, former field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Kentucky Entertainers, the Elwyn Musical company, the Chicago Ladies' Singing Party, "Strickland" (Gilbert), American Foremost press and platform humorist and Chaplain Klingler of Indiana state prison.

Mr. Laughlin will be here from now on until the opening day of the Chautauqua. He is staying at the home of Mrs. Howard Sellards on Offshore street, where he can be reached by any one having business with the Chautauqua. He will assume active charge of the ticket selling campaign and other advance preparations.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the Chautauqua will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Sellards, which Mr. Laughlin will attend. At this meeting, an organized ticket selling campaign will be decided upon.

Sale of tickets is in charge of the Federation of Women's clubs, who are hoping for a liberal response from the residents of the city. After they have sold their guarantee, 750 tickets, one-half of the receipts of the balance goes into the treasury of the Federation to be used in keeping up the Children's Playgrounds, the Day Nursery, the Anti-Tuberculosis society and other worthy institutions sponsored by the Federation.

"The Death Angel visited the home of Mrs. Dora Powell, Monday, and took from her her loving husband, Otis, in the prime of life. He was but twenty-four years of age, but God had need of another angel. His will, not ours, be done. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the wife, son and father. We shall meet, but we shall miss him. There will be one vacant chair. We shall linger to caress him. When we breathe our evening prayer:

It is sad that one we cherish Should be taken from our home. But the joys that do not perish Live in memory alone.

All the years were spent together. All the happy golden hours Shall be cherished in remembrance. Fragrant sweets from memory's flowers.

Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe, where storms are o'er;

On the border land we left him. Soon to meet and part no more. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine on them.

Everything is in readiness for the "Children's Fete" to be given by the Mothers' and Teachers' Club of the lower Fourth street school building, to be held Thursday afternoon on the spacious lawn of the Alan N. Jordan home, corner Fourth and Court streets, between the hours of three and five.

All efforts are being put forth to make the afternoon a happy one for the little ones. And what is more pleasing and entertaining for the adults than to be entertained by the children with their games and folk dances. A beautiful picture will be the May Pole dance, by twelve children from Miss Smith's school of the Lincoln building, Elizabeth Nye, Alice Williams, Gussie Wood, Elizabeth Wyckoff, Helen Yeley, Eunice Newman, Edna Tracy, Ruth Starling, Georgia Scott, Eugene Hughes, Willard Stalder and Marvin White.

Another feature that is sure to delight the little tots is the "Pony Ride." Few children have the opportunity to ride on a real pony, and every one of them will welcome the chance. Another pony has been added since yesterday, making three ponies that will be available. They will be in charge of trustworthy attendants, and the children are assured absolute safety. The owners of the ponies who have kindly donated them for the afternoon are Masters Harry Brandel, Willard Stalder and George Walters. Five cents a ride will be charged.

One of the big free features is the dramatizing and folk dances by the following children of Mrs. Frances McColm's school: George Cook, Garnet McKhart, Peru Sanford, Geraldine Grubbs, Margaret Heid, Dorothy Hennessy, Paul Baerle, Mary Feil, Chester Johnson, Mildred Little, Harold McCann, Gilbert McGlothlin, Ferdinand Martin, Nell Millhuff, Ida Molar, Charles Pace, Henrietta Price, Miriam Pyles, Nell Simpson, Ada Stewart, Helen Taylor, Pearl Warren, Joseph Smalley, Elbert Sengrave, Rodolph Larcher, and Minnie Simpson. Little Miss Nell Simpson will also entertain with Mother Goose songs.

A thrilling feature will be the acrobatic stunts by Charles Pace, of Mrs. McColm's school, who will do hair-raising stunts upon a ladder, walk on his hands and other circus stunts.

Added features are a Punch and Judy show and a merry-go-round arranged today.

Remember, the invitation is general, open to parents and children of all parts of the city. The proceeds go to the fund for providing clothing and supplies for needy school children next winter.

PALE BEAUTY FADES

The girl who comes home from school or shop tired out every day may be beautiful but she will soon fade. She will be fortunate if she escapes a physical breakdown because the cause with which she is afflicted is a thinning of the blood that cannot be disregarded.

This blood may give an attractive patina for a short time but soon the patient becomes thin, flat-chested, haggard and sagging. The only beauty that endures is that of rich, red blood shining through a transparent skin.

Almost any girl can build up her blood by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are useful to growing girls, to pale girls, thin girls and those who get tired or out of breath easily. Mothers of such girls should see to it that the tendency to anemia is checked by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills before the trouble becomes chronic.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will build up the blood if anything will. They are free from opiates or harmful drugs and can be taken with perfect safety by anyone. Your own druggist sells them. So you can begin the treatment at once. A helpful booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent you free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Ticket Campaign For The Chautauqua On In Earnest

"Chautauqua" is to be the chief theme in Portsmouth for the next two weeks. R. W. Laughlin, manager for the Redpath Company, has arrived and from now until the opening day he will be busy placing advertising matter and otherwise assisting the Federation of Women's clubs under whose auspices the ticket campaign is being conducted.

Artistic souvenir programs, automobile pennants, dusters and banners, window cards, pennant streamers, Chautauqua hats and other supplies will be distributed by Laughlin, and nothing will be left undone in the campaign for a record-breaking week of worth while entertainments.

Systematically and extensively the Chautauqua dates and attractions are being announced in surrounding territory and it is expected that many visitors will be in the city during the week. It will be a home-coming event for many former residents, and local people will avail themselves of the opportunity to provide high class entertainment for themselves and guests.

It is probable that an auto parade will be held within the next few days, at which time it is expected that nearly 100 cars will be suitably decorated and in line for a hoister trip. Other novel events are being planned by local people who have made possible the Chautauqua.

The seven-day program begins July 2 in York Park and some of the chief attractions are the Box Great Players, Ferullo's band, Dr. Frank W. Chausseus, Marcus A. Kellerman, dramatic baritone, Packard the cartoonist, Dr. Herbert L. Willett, Reno, the magician, Attorney-General Barker, of Missouri, Edwin M. Whitney, reader, the American Male Quartet, George L. McNutt, the "Dinner-Pail Man," the Military Girls, Harry P. Alwood, former field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Kentucky Entertainers, the Elwyn Musical company, the Chicago Ladies Singing Party, Strickland Gillilan, American foremost press and plain humorist and Chaplain Kiplinger of Indiana state prison.

Mr. Laughlin will be here from now on until the opening day of the Chautauqua. He is staying at the home of Mrs. Howard Sellards on Officers street, where he can be reached by any one having business with the Chautauqua. He will assume active charge of the ticket selling campaign and other adequate preparations.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the Chautauqua will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Sellards, which Mr. Laughlin will attend. At this meeting, an organized ticket selling campaign will be decided upon.

Sale of tickets is in charge of the Federation of Women's clubs, who are hoping for a liberal response from the residents of the city. After they have sold their guarantee, 750 tickets, one-half of the receipts of the balance goes into the treasury of the Federation to be used in keeping up the Children's Playgrounds, the Day Nursery, the Anti-Tuberculosis society and other worthy institutions sponsored by the Federation.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE CHILDREN'S FETE

SOCIETY

Everything is in readiness for the "Children's Fete" to be given by the Mothers' and Teachers' Club of the lower Fourth street school building, to be held Thursday afternoon on the spacious lawn of the Alan N. Jordan home, corner Fourth and Court streets, between the hours of three and five.

All efforts are being put forth to make the afternoon a happy one for the little ones. And what is more pleasing and entertaining for the adults than to be entertained by the children with their games, and folk dances. A beautiful picture will be the May Pole danced by twelve children from Miss Smith's school of the Lincoln building, Elizabeth Nye, Alice Williams, Garnet Wood, Elizabeth Wyckoff, Helen Yeley, Eunice Newman, Edna Tracy, Ruth Starling, Georgia Scott, Eugene Hughes, Willard Stalder and Marvin White.

Another feature that is sure to delight the little tots is the "Pony Ride." Few children have the opportunity to ride on a real pony, and every one of them will welcome the chance. Another pony has been added since yesterday, making three ponies that will be available. They will be in charge of trustworthy attendants, and the children are assured absolute safety. The owners of the ponies who have kindly donated them for the afternoon are Masters Harry Brandel, Willard Stalder and George Walters. Five cents a ride will be charged.

One of the big free features is the dramatic and folk dances by the following children of Mrs. Frances McCall's school: George Cook, Garnet Belcher, Fern Gifford, Geraldine Grubbs, Margaret Heid, Dorothy Hennessey, Paul Hoertel, Mary Feist, Chester Johnson, Mildred Little, Harold McCann, Gilbert McCall, Ferdinand Martin, Nell Millard, Ida Malar, Charles Pace, Henrietta Price, Miriam Pyles, Nell Simpson, Ada Stewart, Helen Taylor, Pearl Warden, Joseph Smalley, Elbert Sengrave, Rofield Lancher, and Minnie Simpson. Little Miss Nell Simpson will also entertain with Mother Goose songs.

A thrilling feature will be the acrobatic stunts by Charles Pace, of Mrs. McCall's school, who will do hair-raising acts upon a ladder, walk on his hands and other circus stunts.

Added features are a Punch and Judy show and a merry-go-round arranged today.

Remember, the invitation is general, open to parents and children of all parts of the city. The proceeds go to the fund for providing clothing and supplies for needy school children next winter.

Want Watch Returned

The police officials have communicated with William Woodruff, of Cincinnati, demanding the return of the watch with which Milton Ylaska, of Grace street, New Boston, claims the former recently departed without any warrant in law.

PALE BEAUTY FADES

The girl who comes home from school or shop tired out every day may be beautiful but she will soon fade. She will be fortunate if she escapes a physical breakdown because the cause with which she is afflicted is probably the first warning symptom of a thinning of the blood that cannot be disregarded.

This blood may give an attractive palor for a short time but soon the patient becomes thin, flat-chested, haggard and nagging. The only beauty that endures is that of rich, red blood shining through a transparent skin.

Almost any girl can build up her blood by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are useful to growing girls, to pale girls, thin girls and those who get tired or out of breath easily. Mothers of such girls should see to it that the tendency to anemia is checked by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills before the trouble becomes chronic.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will build up the blood if anything will. They are free from opiates or harmful drugs and can be taken with perfect safety by anyone. Your own druggist should tell you how to begin the treatment at once. A large booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent you free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

EXTEND THE WORK.

Few towns have made such notable progress in beautification, in the past decade, as has Portsmouth, that is considering the starting point.

Ten years ago it is doubtful if there was such another unkempt and disorderly town anywhere in the country. Her homes were eye-sores for lack of paint, porches were almost unknown and a green grass lawn was a rarity. In this respect there has been a mighty change, an almost complete metamorphosis. Well painted houses are the rule, instead of the exception, almost every one, no matter how unpretentious now has a porch, though they call it a veranda, and there are thousands of well kept lawns.

This is well, though it is neither to be denied more might be done in the same direction to the betterment of appearances, but that which should for the immediate present and sometime to come engage the property owners in the way of improving appearances is the planting of shade trees. Some are engaged in this, but it is to be noted that the best trees for shade and ornamental purposes are not planted. Oftentimes this is because the buyer is deceived by the seller. A striking instance of this is where the city itself became the victim. When York Place was created it was stipulated by council that every variety of tree indigenous to Ohio—about 170 in total—was to be planted therein. It doesn't take one learned in woodcraft to see how scant actually are the varieties growing in the park. But, as to the matter of selection, if one really wants the best he will plant elms and maples and sycamores are not bad, but above all things the North Carolina poplar should be avoided. It is a rapid grower, but short-lived at best and peculiarly susceptible to pest and storm.

WELL, DID YOU EVER?

Just at this time, when Bryan's enemies are so much exultant over what they assume to be his complete elimination from the councils of the nation, it is highly amusing, if you happen to have a keen sense of the humorous, to see his most ancient and inveterate foes, the railroads, pressing forward for the identical legislation for proposing which originally they denounced him as demagogue, a socialist, communist and anything else it caught the fancy of his critics to nominate.

Back in 1908 the money interests had it planned to make him president. The stage was all set and the curtain was to go up on his reaching New York from a tour of the world, it being properly heralded in advance that he was the only private citizen ever to receive royal honors from princes and potentates under every sun. He was not to be muzzled even as to free silver, nor yet on recall, initiative or the referendum, the only condition being that he was not to spring any new "paramount issue," upon a country that was racked and disordered by seven years of Rooseveltism. But Bryan dearly loves to hear himself echoed in a mighty furor of noise and contention, kicked over the bucket so to speak, and declared for federal supervision of railroads—his enemies said government ownership, but that was only conditional on supervision being a failure. He certainly raised pandemonium to his heart's delight, even if he did toss away thereby the presidency.

But now see what happens. Worn and torn by a multiplicity of state harassments and limitations, the railroads themselves are going before congress, this coming session, asking for a federal incorporation law, under which they may reorganize and thus be conclusively subject to federal, or national control and legislation. And right here is where the silver lining begins to show on the black clouds that overhang Bryan's political future.

Hist! The charge is now made right in Berlin that "Germany's military preparedness" was more the outgrowth of the activities and conspiracies of the home-grown arms and ammunition trust than from any other cause. The trust is alleged to have been especially active in bribing government army officials and subsidizing and cheating the metropolitan newspapers of the entire world.

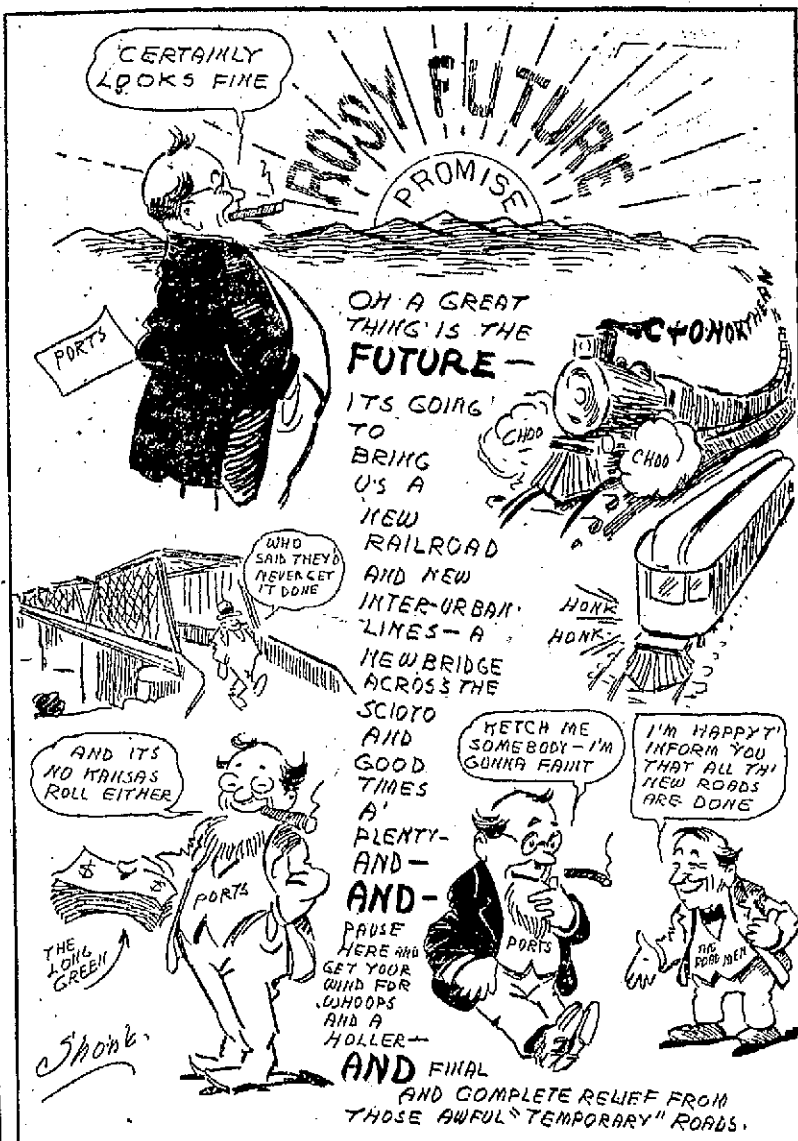

It is too sadly apparent that our good young Governor doesn't know Scioto county is on the map. He appointed something like thirty-five persons to unsalaried offices and honorary dignities, Monday, and not one of them was from this section. In fact, outside of Cincinnati there was not one between East Liverpool and Georgetown and Portsmouth and Columbus.

The Governor of Georgia says he would have been guilty of Frank's blood, if he had let him hang. Which being taken as true, why didn't he give the unhappy young man a full pardon, instead of commuting his sentence to life imprisonment?

"Say," said the fellow who always stops you on the street, "I was in fronton yesterday and bought the best thing in the place. What was it? Ticket to Portsmouth of course, what do you suppose?"

If the Kaiser's men take Lemberg the stage will again be set about as it was in the beginning, wherefore it will be in order for both sides to spit on their hands and make the strongest pull possible.

SOME SWEET DAY.

NEWSPAPER CHARITY.

(The Fourth Estate.)

Space and copies of his paper go to make up the newspaper man's entire stock of trade. These two are all that he has to offer for sale to the public, and no one has ever yet given any sort of satisfactory reason why he should ever be asked by any one to donate them.

One thing newspaper people will never be able to understand is why any person will walk into a newspaper office and make himself or herself an object of charity and insist upon what they would disdain to ask for in any other shop or place of business in the town. The principle is the same in the newspaper office as in the dry goods store, the grocery, the drug store, and what a great many people need is to come to recognize it as the same and get off the newspaper charity list.

Advertising space in the newspaper is for sale, not to give away. It has a certain intrinsic value in itself that makes it worth money. Copies of the newspaper are for sale, not to give away. If they are worth having, they are worth the exceedingly small price asked for them.

The public, or at least a large portion of it, has some very erroneous ideas about these matters, and it is but just to the newspaper folks that these ideas be corrected in accordance with the same business principles that prevail in all other business establishments.

In the vast majority of cases, this generous charity on the part of newspapers is blisfully taken for granted, and the paper's liberality abused. That which is purely a favor is accepted as a matter of course, and what should be requests are couched as demands.

Slabtown decides she wants flood wall before paved streets. Yes, in a way, that's wisdom, but the wisest thing is not to reject anything good that comes your way, no matter as to the order in which you would like it to come.

The steel mills are running full pressure. Confidentially, we wonder if the management is charging it up to the acre of Democratic free trade.

Here it is with July 4th only a few days off and as yet we haven't had any summer weather. Hear us howl though when it breaks upon us all at once in its fullest fury.

Of course, it is that atrocious Democratic free trade which has caused zinc ore to advance $30 a ton and wheat to hold steadily over a dollar.

Progress proceeds apace in real Southern Ohio. McArthur is to lay some brick paving.

New Boston is doing the sensible thing in beginning the paving of her streets while she is little.

No better proof that Leo Frank did not get a fair and impartial trial could be adduced than the actions of Atlanta citizens who sought to storm the home of the governor of their state because he had commuted Frank's sentence to imprisonment for life. A mob which would demand the blood of a governor for daring to do his duty surely would make its influence felt in a jury room.

The cheerful news comes out of New York that the last six months of the year will see unprecedented activity in railroad construction. We are holding our ear pretty close to the ground, but we fail to note any report that the N. & W. is going to build a new station at the Peerless—not even next year.

Governor Willis enjoys being unique. He has demonstrated this again by postponing his trip to California at the behest of the united and assembled hosts of Republican office hunters.

Old Doc Koko says and echoes things wise and otherwise, but he never uttered a more cynical truth than in the poem, "Motoring to the Poor House."

Sorrowful news for the G. O. P. organs. Continually increasing activity marks the operations of eastern mills and factories and the contagion is spreading over the entire land.

So far the rains haven't been charged to Democratic free trade.

There is one auto to every thirty-five persons, which means that about one mortal out of every seven rides regularly.

After all it is little of argument and less of refutation to say your opponent is crazy.

When you say it never rains but it pours, you mean whenever a town gets a bathing beach a swimming pool comes also.

The war may make New York the money center of the world. Well, that's bringing the real stuff nearer, anyway.

Those temporary roads are some better, or may be it would be a better way to put it, not so bad as they were.

Duration of Life Increased.
Four hundred years ago the average length of human life was between eighteen and twenty years. One hundred years ago the average human life was less than thirty. The average human life today reaches nearly forty years.

New York, June 23.—Anthony Comstock, censor of art and literature, has lost his job. He ceases to be a United States Postoffice Inspector after holding the job for more than 40 years. Like Eva Tanguay, he says: "I don't care!" His story doesn't jibe with the rumors that enormous pressure was brought to bear to make him get out gracefully.

Comstock formed the society for the Suppression of Vice and then landed the inspector job. For a number of years he has been persona non grata in the Federal Building. Especially the District Attorney's office also point blank refused to let Anthony run their affairs—an odd whim!

So offensive was Comstock at times that when Hugh Gordon Miller, of Virginia, sat, smashed the crusader on the eye and jaw in court the U. S. Commissioner refused to order the Virginian's arrest. Comstock was born in New Canaan, Conn., but grew the trick whippers after coming to New York. He was a dry goods clerk and interested church workers in his vice society scheme. He made a lot of money for folk he prosecuted including the owners of "September Moon" and the publishers of "Hagar Revelly" and others.

Modeste Hannis Jordan has found that getting out a magazine for writing folk does not pay. She started the Hannis-Jordan Publishing Co., a few years ago and published a monthly magazine for authors and newspapermen. After a rough journey the company hit the rocks. One of the books the company published was called: "One Hundred Ways to Make Money by Writing."

A brigade of high ball drinkers were called in the other day to prove that Assistant District Attorney R. C. McCormick was happy when he drank—the more liquor he swallowed the more agreeable he became. His wife is using him and says when he drank he abused her.

One of the witnesses told about the "stuff" dinners given to the District Attorney each year and at which it seems that McCormick would show how much liquor a man could stand up under nicely.

Said Mirabeau Towns, the lawyer: "Do they call them 'stuff' dinners because the guests left the place on crutches?"

The tenement court singers have arrived—proving to New York that summer is here despite the prevalence of white fox furs.

These pathetic figures flock into the courts of the big apartment houses—the acoustics being excellent for such purposes—and singing the latest songs for the tenants.

Just now many singers who formerly held positions in the cheaper vaudeville and picture houses are picking up a living in this fashion. Most of the money is tossed to them from sheer pity for the music, if it could be called such, is atrocious.

The Shuberts—having given up the Hippodrome—will build and operate an ice palace on Forty-fourth street. It will be about the size of the old Lip and will be modelled after the Admirals' Palace in Berlin. The entire lower floor will be covered with ice for skating. It will seat 4,000.

When Robert and Edwin Simpson, noted New York lawyers, came to New York to win fame and fortune, they were just in the early teens. They decided that having lived in Philadelphia all their lives they should become bold and reckless—so they joined the Y. M. C. A.

Both were unused to city ways and had been told about the snares that beset those who live in the country—and Philadelphia. The Simpsons were brought up in a good old Quaker family. One of the questions the director asked Robert was: "Are you a Christian?" His chin quivered for a few seconds and drawing himself up proudly he said: "No sir, I am a Quaker."

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, June 23.—Weakness in Canadian Pacific which lost 3 points in the early dealings falling to 147½, its lowest price since 1908 was the feature of today's initial trading. Selling of this stock was believed to represent further foreign liquidation induced in part by the new British financing. Elsewhere the list recorded a majority of gains over losses. Bethlehem Steel and General Motors advancing a point, with gains in the speculative leaders, including Reading, which soon advanced 1½.

Prices continued to move continuously throughout the morning.

Canadian recovering to 149½, but again retreating. Reading was the most active stock of the first hour, it exceeded the combined output of the other speculative favorites. All coal shares were strong, Lehigh Valley gaining over a point and Lackawanna adding 7, or 15 points since the recent decision against the company.

The stocks and bonds of the Minneapolis and St. Louis and Iowa

Central roads rose ½ to 2 points.

Bonds were irregular.

"WE WILL FIGHT YANKEE INVADERS"

"We have been threatened as if we were children. I am not sure that you would care to make public my ideas about this matter. If these northerners do not wish to take into consideration the rights as guardians of Mexico, if they deem us weak and incapable of defending our beloved country, if they consider it honorable to allow a great nation to sink a ship like the Lusitania with impunity and then to resort to mix in our political affairs simply because they are strong, then I say let hostilities break out. Let them bombard our ports with their great squadrons, as we have no warships. It does not matter.

"Let them send millions of their soldiers. We will fight them. But, never will the Mexican be intimidated by the bragadocio of the Yankees.

"If I compromise myself by these expressions, I and my followers accept all responsibility. We will answer with our lives if necessary. We will beat these invaders and drive them from Mexico.

"Our country and history will later serve us with glory for not running as cowards before this powerful nation that wishes to crush us for committing no greater crime than that of fighting for liberty. Although we are incomparably smaller, we are more patriotic. We have no arms nor have we ammunition, but we have breasts wherein to receive bullets. You may use the above in such manner as your patriotism may dictate.

(Signed) EUFEMIO ZAPATA."

General Roque Gonzales Garza was deposed as president of Mexico June 10.

STRIKING WOMEN BEAT UP WORKERS

Cleveland, June 23.—Two women were attacked and beaten by striking women when they attempted to go to work in downtown office buildings today. Police gave protection to all at work in the several buildings where pickets were on duty. The places of the strikers have been filled with men at two large office buildings.

CAPTURE LEMBERG

forward westward through Galicia, recaptured Przemyśl June 10 and then without pause struck at Lemberg from the south and west. At no point were the Russians able to withstand the terrific bombardment directed against their positions, and even the line of defenses near Grodek, 16 miles west of Lemberg, which is great natural strength, proved to be untenable.

With Lemberg now in their hands, Austria has reclaimed virtually the whole province of Galicia. The fighting in this campaign has been of unusual intensity.

London, June 23.—The statement from Austrian headquarters that Lemberg had fallen before the advance of the forces of Austria and Germany was received in London without surprise. It was known that the Germanic

380 SCHOOL TEACHERS OUSTED

Scranton, Pa., June 23.—Three hundred and eighty school teachers, who recently rebelled against the authority of the superintendent of schools when ordered to take an examination are without schools. The board of education has reappointed all teachers who took the examination and ignored those who refused. The teachers formed a union at the time they decided not to take the examination.

GUN PLATFORM MAY ADORN ALL ZEPPELINS

Basel, Switzerland, June 22 (via Paris, June 23).—Dispatches reaching here from Germany state that a meeting of aerial experts was held recently at Friedrichshafen to discuss the question of constructing on top of all Zeppelin airships launched in the future a gun platform on which to mount machine guns. These would be used to drive away enemy aeroplanes and protect the Zeppelins from attacks such as that delivered over Belgium by British aviator Warneford. The opinion was expressed at this conference that Warneford had exploded the theory of Count Zeppelin that his airships cannot be approached and attacked by aeroplanes.

Another message reaching here from Germany says that Emperor William when he heard of the death of Aviator Warneford said "He was a brave enemy."

WARDEN WILL SEEK MURDERER HIMSELF

Joliet, Ill., June 23.—Edmund Allen, warden of the penitentiary, whose wife was slain and her body burned in their apartments at the prison on Sunday, plans personally to seek out the slayer from among the 1,800 convicts, it became known today. Warden Allen plans to assume personal charge of the investigation after the inquest is resumed tomorrow.

The investigation was continued today for more evidence to be presented tomorrow and the convicts held under suspicion were subjected to another questioning.

WILSON TO LEAVE FOR SUMMER WHITEHOUSE

Washington, June 23.—President Wilson will leave at midnight for the summer White House at Cornish, N. H., not to return until July 6. He goes first to Roslyn L. I., to spend tomorrow with Col. E. M. House. Late tomorrow night he will leave Roslyn for Cornish, where he expects to arrive Friday afternoon. Direct telegraph communication between the White House offices and Cornish has been arranged and the president will be in constant touch with Secretary Lansing and other officials here.

Willis Works On Bryson Charges

Columbus, June 23.—Governor Willis remained in his office today refusing to receive callers, while he worked on charges to be filed against Civil Service Commissioner Charles H. Bryson. The governor was in conference with Otto Hunkeler of Toledo, who is expected to furnish material for a referendum campaign after his resignation takes effect July 15.

Had asked that the filing of the charges be delayed, and this led to reports that he would resign. This was denied by Mr. Bryson.

Referendum on the civil service bill became certain today when Samuel A. Hoskins, president of the state civil service commission announced he would assist in such a referendum campaign after his resignation takes effect July 15.

Italians Make Gains, Are Bombarding City

Geneva, June 23.—(Via Paris, June 23).—A Tribune dispatch from Lathach says: "The Italians have gained possession of all the positions defending Malborghetto after a fierce struggle with the Austrians, particularly the Honved detachments which displayed great tenacity. The Italians now are violently bombarding the city.

"Arrival of Austrian reinforcements stopped the Italian advance at Caporetto but they have not gone back across the Isonzo.

"Thirty thousand Austrians who debouched from the Ternoza forest are marching against positions north of Gorizia.

"Southeast of Flitsch strong Austrian forces sought to drive back the Italians who gave way before superior numbers and retired as far as the frontier where they concealed themselves in a forest and allowed the Austrians to pass. When the Austrians were installed in Italian positions, the Italians opened a murderous machine gun fire, killing over 400 of their adversaries and forcing the rest out of their positions."

Lobbyists Must File Statements Soon

Columbus, June 23.—Secretary of State Aldrich today called attention to the lobby law which requires itemized statements of expenditures to be filed by all lobbyists or interests employing them, within 30 days after the adjournment of the legislature. These statements must be presented to him before Saturday night, he said. The penalty for not doing this is a fine of between $200 to $5,000 or one to two years imprisonment or both.

Only a few of the 160 lobby interests thus far have filed their expense statements.

The statement must show the name and address of every person, firm or corporation to whom anything was paid, or to whom any promise of payment was made either "directly or indirectly" and state for what purpose the sum was given together with the date. The source of the fund that the balance unused also must be shown. The statement must be sworn to.

The law applies to those: Every person, firm, corporation or association that has employed any person, firm, corporation or association, or has paid or promised to pay any money or anything of value in relation to any matter pending before the legislature.

An exception is made in the case of professional service in drafting bills or in professional advice.

LIQUOR LICENSE MEN CHARGED WITH NEGLECT

Columbus, June 23.—Charges of misconduct in office, incompetency and gross neglect of duty were filed against Robert T. Michener and Hayward Long, members of the Belmont county liquor licensing board, with the state board today by Louis F. Larche, Bellaire business man, through his attorney, former Attorney General T. S. Hogan.

Proximity of Belmont county to West Virginia which is dry, has made saloon licenses in that county particularly valuable and much agitation developed in the course of the board's granting licenses. Among charges against Michener and Long are that they refused to give hearings to rejected applicants, issued licenses to persons not qualified to receive them, granted licenses to persons who had "silent partners," acted under personal prejudice in many cases without examining applicants on their merits and gave licenses to persons not residents of the municipalities in which they were to conduct saloons.

Long allowed his name to be used in the firm name, "Hayward Long and company," which sold cigars and tobacco to saloons in the county and thus capitalized his official influence. It was charged. Michener boasted after he took office that he would secure licenses for certain persons and did so, the charges asserted.

Furthermore he boasted that he would be appointed even before he was named by the state licensing board, it was said.

The state board may hear the charges after allowing 30 days notice to Michener and Long.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOW BODIES OF AMERICANS

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, off Guaymas, Mexico, by Radio to San Diego, June 23.—Photographs which show mutilated bodies of several Americans reported killed by Yaqui Indians were received here today from the Yaqui valley, where the Indians have been making raids for several weeks. A military train with 200 Villa soldiers was sent yesterday from Empalme to attempt a rescue of a construction party of two Americans and 16 Mexicans reported to be at work repairing a railroad bridge over the Yaqui river near Corral about 75 miles from here. It is reported the railroad company has decided to abandon further repair work in the Yaqui district, which was for the relief of this party.

The work train with this construction party was attacked by Yaquis near Jori Sunday and 24 of the 80 Villa soldiers sent as an escort were reported killed, 8 wounded and 22 missing. The Yaqui losses were not given.

CONDEMN INTERVIEW ATTRIBUTED TO POPE

Rome, June 22 (via Paris, June 23).—The Italian press vigorously condemns the interview attributed to Pope Benedict by Louis Jatape and published in La Liberté, of Paris in which His Holiness is said to have voiced a complaint that the privileges of the Vatican have been seriously curtailed by the Italian government as the result of the war.

The Corriere D'Italia declares that if the pontiff does not categorically deny the words attributed to him they will have deplorable consequences. Secola says "The pope has spoken strange words."

It has been made by the pope to Louis Jatape. In this interview the pontiff is said to have asserted that Cardinal Mercier, Archbishop of Malines never had been arrested. The Vingt-tieme Siecle takes particular exception to this statement.

The newspaper argues that Cardinal Mercier's coercion was proved by the archbishop's own pastoral address to the clergy on January 10 in which the prelate formerly contradicted the statement of General Von Bissing, German governor of Belgium that the Cardinal never had been prevented from exercising fully his ecclesiastical functions.

TO EMPLOY MANY MEN

Chester, Pa., June 23.—Builders and real estate men have been notified by representatives of the Baldwin Locomotive Works and of the Remington Arms company that at least two thousand additional houses will be needed for the families of workmen to be brought here to fill orders from the European countries at war.

The Remington concern announced that it had sufficient orders on hand to keep its new plant busy for 2 years.

ADVANCE ON SCUTARI

Rome, June 22.—(Via Paris, June 23).—The Montenegrin offensive against Scutari, Albania, is developing with success, according to a dispatch to the Giornale D'Italia. Montenegrin troops are said to be marching against the city in three columns.

Going Into Canada? Better Get Passport

Washington, June 23.—While travel, the department is busy advising American citizens generally with advice of this character: tier man and Austrian maid-servants in the domestic service, of American citizens, the department understands, may be granted special permission to accompany their employers into Canada. The employers are advised to apply, through the chief commissioner of the dominion police, or the superintendent of immigration, or through the American consul general at Ottawa for permission to enter Canada.

The application should state the time and place of crossing the frontier and the employer is required to express his willingness to vouch for the good behavior of the servants during their stay in Canada.

B'Gosh, Sure, Most Of Farmers Wear Garters

Chicago, Ill., June 23.—Farmers of today are different from those of 20 years ago, E. T. Mordith of Des Moines, Iowa, publisher of a farm journal told delegates attending the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world today.

"Some of you advertisers act as if you think farmers didn't wear coats and shoes," Mr. Mordith said. "Why do you know that 50 per cent of all farmers wear garters? It has been proven by investigation. You haven't realized that the farmer can buy that ho pays from $15 to $45 for a suit of clothes and that he purchases motor cars ranging in price from $500 to $2,000.

"The advertising agencies should study the rural towns. You think the farmers nowadays are the same as they were 20 years ago."

The convention city for 1916 was to be selected today at a meeting of the nomination board. Cincinnati and Philadelphia are asking for the convention.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, keep every bit of it, and stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not what we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyle's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

FEARED ENEMY WOULD KILL HIM AND TOOK REFUGE IN ICE HOUSE

Residents of Scitoville, in the vicinity of Main and Jackson streets, Tuesday night, about nine o'clock, thought a wild man had struck that place by the loud yells given out by a foreigner who had run into the Alfred Fowkes ice house, declaring that someone was after him and was going to kill him. James Willis, who works at the ice house all night, took to his heels at the sight of the supposed crazy man. A large crowd soon gathered and word was sent to the Portsmouth police officials and sheriff to come out and arrest him. The city officials referred the Scitoville party to the New Boston officials, but the village officers also refused to take a hand without a warrant. The foreigner claimed to have been in a fight with fellow countrymen in New Boston several nights ago and said that the fellow he was fighting with was after him with a gun. He was finally taken to the gun Stillman pool room, where he lay down on the floor in a corner and proceeded to keep up his yells.

According to Constable Clinton Daniels, who was routed out of bed about eleven o'clock to take the foreigner to New Boston, the man acted as though he had filled up on cheap whiskey, and in the New Boston jail the foreigner quieted down and was very contented, considering himself safe behind the bars.

The man was brought to the county jail Wednesday morning by the New Boston officers, and an affidavit in lunacy filed against him. His fellow countryman said that his name is Nick Greer. At an inquest in probate court this afternoon he was adjudged insane and ordered committed to the Athens insane hospital. He will be taken there Thursday.

He suffered a fracture of the skull near the base of the brain, but on account of his youth it may not be fatal.

Yoakley Says Wife Hit Him With Fist; Asks For Divorce

Concerning the domestic difficulties of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Yoakley, the former a son of John Yoakley, at one time an organizer in this city, the Cincinnati Enquirer has quite a story. Yoakley, who is made defendant in the divorce suit filed by his wife, himself sued for divorce several weeks ago but later withdrew the suit only to be named defendant in a similar action taken by the wife. The Enquirer says: "That the marital troubles which Alice Fern Yoakley and John N. Yoakley, young music teacher, accumulated in the six short months since their wedding, are to be aired in the divorce court was made certain yesterday when Yoakley filed an answer and cross petition to the wife's suit for divorce."

"The couple were married last New Year's Eve, at which time the bride, then Alice Fern Rowley, of Bond Hill, was but 17 years old. Less than three weeks ago Yoakley filed suit asking for a divorce, he blaming his wife's mother for all their troubles. His petition alleged that his mother-in-law was an exceedingly 'dominating' woman and 'ruled the men of her family.' He also declared that she had imparted this characteristic to her daughter."

who had begun exercising her powers upon him to such an extent that he could no longer stand them. "Less than a week after filing the suit Yoakley dismissed it, and his action was followed a few days later by Mrs. Yoakley filing suit and asking for a divorce, alimony and her maiden name. She charged neglect and cruelty. Yesterday Yoakley answered this, stating that while his wife was but 17 years old, her father gave consent to the wedding. He further denied any cruelty, but said if there had been any, as alleged, his wife had condoned everything. "For a cross-petition he accuses her of having an uncontrollable temper, and says that she struck him with her fist on May 30. She also threatened to leave him every time he refused to 'accede to her whims,' he states, and she did leave him on June 2. Therefore, Yoakley asks that he be granted the divorce. Coleman Avey, attorney."

Four Reels Of The Goddess On Monday At Lyric Theatre

Frances Mack, manager of the Lyric theatre, made a special trip to the offices of the General Film company, of Cincinnati Tuesday to investigate the cause of the non-arrival last Monday of the first two reels of "The Goddess," the serial which is being run each Saturday in the Times and shown in motion pictures at the Lyric the following Monday.

Manager Mack learned that the failure of the films to arrive was due to carelessness in the shipping department of the General Film company, and received assurance that it would not occur again.

Patrons of the Lyric are assured a real treat next Monday, when Manager Mack will show the first and second installments, four reels in all, for one price of admission. This will help to make up for the disappointment of the large crowds which visited the Lyric last Monday in anticipation of seeing the first installment of the big feature. Earle Williams and Anita Stewart, two local favorites, are in the leading roles.

A GOOD THING

When It Comes Along Don't Let It Get Away From You.

"I really feel that it is hardly possible to say too much in favor of Grape-Nuts as a 'health' food," writes a Chicago lady.

"For 9 or 10 years I had suffered from indigestion and chronic constipation, caused by the continued use of coffee and rich, heavy foods. My ailments made my life so wretched that I was eager to try anything that held out a promise of help. And that is how I happened to buy a package of Grape-Nuts food last spring."

"That ended my experiments. For in Grape-Nuts I found exactly what I wanted and needed. From the day I began to use it I noticed an improvement and in a very few weeks I found my health was being restored."

"My digestive apparatus now works perfectly and chronic constipation has been entirely relieved. I have gained in weight materially, and life is a very pleasant thing to me so long as I use Grape-Nuts once or twice a day. I have found by experiment that if I leave it off for a few days my health suffers."

"A physician in our own town has great success in treating stomach troubles, and the secret of it is that he puts his patient on Grape-Nuts food—it always brings back the power of digestion."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, health, wealth, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 90. Residence A. 950.

I cannot put on my hat to go to a neighbor's unless my wife wants to know where I am going, and why I don't take her along. It makes me feel as if I were in school, and had to raise my hand and ask "teacher" every time I left the room. How can I cure her of this habit without getting cross and disagreeable?

INDIGNANT HUSBY.
It is rather my own opinion that your wife has a right to know where you are going, and it might not be too much to expect you to take her along some times. Just reverse the situation. Put on her hat right after dinner—how would you like that?—and start out some place (telling her a neighbor's) without telling her where she was going. If I were writing the advice to your wife, I would suggest her doing this several times to "cure you of the habit."

Dear Miss Wise.—There is a girl in McDermott whom I would like very much to go with. I am 21 years old and have blue eyes. Do you think I am pretty? She keeps company with another fellow. Would like to win her, so please advise me.

MCDERMOTT BOY.
If you want her go after her. "A faint heart never won a fair maiden." If you try real hard you can probably "beat" the other boy's time.

Dear Dolly.—When I was younger my mother never allowed me to go with boys, but now that I am old enough none of the boys seems to care to go with me. Several of them are very nice to me at church or when I meet them out, but they never ask me to go anywhere with them. I don't think I am unattractive. I am considered rather pretty. Please don't think I am vain about it, for it is only the good looks of health and youth. I am interested in athletics and sports of all kinds, and I am not of the "soft" variety. I am telling you all this in the hope that you may be able to tell me what is wrong. I am not the kind of girl that wants a boy around all the time or cannot be happy without one, but all the other girls are asked to dances and such things and I am not. Whenever one of my friends has a party and asks, certain boys to bring certain girls, any one asked seems perfectly willing to bring me, but no one asks of his own free will.

LONELY MAIDEN.
Perhaps you are shy and don't enter into the spirit of things as much as the girls who have boy friends. Don't for a minute think that boys are not going to like you. Enter into conversation with them and draw them out on subjects that particularly interest them. Sports and war for instance. When the boys take you home from parties ask them to call some time. Give parties of your own and invite several girls and boys without having the girls bring their own company. Then, be careful of your dress. Boys like simplicity and good lines in clothes rather than fussiness. If you wear chic things you are almost sure to attract them.

Black Eyes.—I would not advise it—unless of course you want to join with the man. Such an arrangement as you speak of in nine cases out of ten turns out unhappily.

I have the name and address of a 15 year old school girl who would like to have a position taking care of children during vacation. If my mother is in need of a nurse girl, please let me know.

Death Came When Motorcycle Bumped Into A Pierce Arrow

The Lexington, Ky. Herald contained the following story of the collision that resulted in the violent death Sunday of a nephew of Postmaster Jos. Prather, of Wheelersburg:

"Walter T. Prather, 24 years old, an insurance solicitor with the National Life Insurance Company, with offices in the Merrick Lodge Building, while riding toward Lexington about a mile out on the Richmond pike on a recently purchased Excelsior motorcycle Sunday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, received fatal internal injuries, who this motorcycle and the six-cylinder Pierce Arrow automobile belonging to J. L. Dodge, prominent horseman, who lives on the Harrodsburg pike. Driven by his chauffeur, Bert Brown, a negro, met in head-on collision, which caused his death an hour later at St. Joseph's hospital.

"His mother, Mrs. Eliza Prather, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Cain, reside in Waco, and another sister, Mrs. Ida Prather Wilson, lives in Louisville. The members of the family were notified Sunday night and came to Lexington Monday. J. M. Moberly, a local grocer, is an uncle of the unfortunate man and Thomas P. Prather, 308 South Broadway Park, is a cousin.

"The Pierce Arrow was Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dodge. Mrs. Dodge's mother, Mrs. R. W. Taylor, of New York, and the chauffeur, Mr. Dodge said:

"We were out on a pleasure trip on the boulevard and driving along at a very moderate rate. We saw the motorcycle coming several hundred yards away, approaching at a rate which I would not place at less than forty miles, and I think nearer sixty miles an hour. There was plenty of room—some twenty feet—for the motorcycle to pass, and we did not attempt to pull over as we were already on the right side of the road.

"In front of us was a carriage. However, this was not in direct line with the man on the motorcycle, and he was looking and coming directly at us and never swerved until he was within ten feet of us. It was then too late, at his rapid rate of speed and he crashed into the left front fender, throwing him to the road and knocking him unconscious. I can in no way account for the man not turning out to the right."

The motorcycle was almost demolished, but the collision hardly injured the big heavy motor car more than tearing a gash in the left front wheel and bending the lamp and fender slightly.

Bert Brown, the chauffeur, when seen Sunday night soon after the accident, was in such a state of nervousness that he could not relate the details. He was very much disturbed over the affair and said he could not understand why Prather did not turn out, as there was ample room for him to do so, he declared. He also stated that about two weeks ago Prather came near hitting him as he was driving on the Harrodsburg pike.

"Prather on March 6 ran over L. J. Miller at the corner of Short and Broadway, breaking his leg, the injury confining him to the Good Samaritan hospital for several weeks.

As soon as the tire on the Dodge machine could be replaced the party drove to Lexington and to the police station to report the accident. Chief Reagan and Chief Brown arrested Mr. Dodge and placed him under a charge of breach of the peace by an assault with an auto. Mr. Dodge was released on bond."

TWO MEN HURT WHEN AUTO AND BUS CRASH

Two traveling men were slightly injured and an Interstate auto bus slightly damaged in a collision with an eastbound Hilltop street car at Eighth and Chillicothe streets about midnight Tuesday night.

The auto bus was returning from the late Cincinnati train on the N. & W., and was headed west on Eighth street for the Washington hotel at a speed of about twelve miles an hour when the collision occurred. The street car was coming north on Chillicothe street at a fair rate of speed.

Andy Clark, the driver of the auto bus, seeing that a collision was inevitable, attempted to turn north on Chillicothe street, but the car sidestepped his automobile and the force of the collision threw it against the gas post near the corner.

Carl N. Cleveland, a traveling salesman from Cleveland, who was a passenger in the auto bus, was thrown across the bus, and his head struck some object, inflicting a gash over his left eye. The other passenger, O. M. Cul-ton, superintendent of the Curtis-Ward Construction company, C. & O. Northern grade contractors, who makes his home at the Washington, slightly injured his arms in the fall inside the bus, but he was all right this morning.

The auto bus was only slightly damaged, according to Interstate officials this morning who said it would be running before the day was over. The fender and running board on one side were badly bent, and other minor damages.

The street car was manned by E. A. Daniels, motorman, and Harold Brady, conductor. Daniels promptly applied the brakes when the auto bus bore in sight, but he did not have time in which to come to a complete stop before he hit it.

New Clothing Firm Leases Distel Room

J. Goldstein, of Columbus, has secured a lease on a 20 by 30 room in the Distel block at Seventh and Chillicothe streets and will open a clothing and gents' furnishing store in it on or about August 15. The room adjoins the one recently leased in the same building by Charles Weber, Chillicothe street shoe merchant.

James Distel, of the Distel Furniture company, announced today that the firm would probably lease another room in the building and that the proposed new addition from the rear would be built right away.

Mr. Goldstein plans to open a strictly first-class store, and it is quite probable that it will be managed by a local man. The store is to receive an attractive front and the firm will carry the best goods on the market.

WANT HUSBAND KEPT AWAY

Lime Treatment in Tuberculosis

In the May 25, 1915, issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association appeared this statement concerning calcium lactate in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption): "The calcium lactate, contained and practically regime of calcium lactate, has been seen as a number of his patients improve, under a course of calcium lactate, and consolidation in the lung, which then resolving would appear to contribute to the healing and closing of the lesions. Hand in hand with this course of even the sputum clearing up of tubercle bacilli, which finally disappear, and the patients are discharged with healed pulmonary tuberculosis."

Flush Your Blood Get it Cleansed

Remarkable Remedy That Works All Through Your Body.

When you put a tablespoonful of S. S. into your stomach it gets straight into your blood. In less than five minutes it has become a wave of restorative influence wherever the blood has circulated. Does this read like magic? But it is absolutely true. These powerful digestive juices in the stomach can not change the medicinal effect of S. S. S. The liver can not burn it. The lungs, skin and kidneys excrete it only after S. S. S. has set in motion millions of cells and nerves to throw off the countless germs that have infected every part of the body. And as S. S. S. continues to battle those troublesome pests that gather in the form of pimples, boils, eczema, acne, rheumatism, and other so-called blood disorders, it rouses into action a myriad of strange but well-understood coronas called macrocytes that actually devour or cleanse or purify diseased germs so they are readily and quickly cast out of the body. It is probably the best appreciated blood medicine known. You will find S. S. S. on sale in nearly every drug store in the U. S. Get a bottle today. And if your case is peculiar, write to the Medical Department, The Swift Specific Co., 108 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is conducted by a noted physician.

A burst in a high pressure water main was discovered on Front street about six feet from the sidewalk in front of the Jones-Ferguson Company's wholesale grocery, shortly after one o'clock Wednesday morning.

Police at once routed water works employees out of bed and by two o'clock the flow of water had been shut off and all danger removed. The overflow did not reach the Jones-Ferguson company's basement but the brick of the street was undermined in several places. A force of men was put to work Wednesday morning repairing the break and restoring the street.

Rejected By A Girl Shoots Self; Falls Dead At Her Feet

Ashland, Ky., June 22.—Wallace Hutchinson, aged twenty-two years, who lived with his widowed mother on Hood's Creek, about four miles from Ashland, shot himself through the heart Saturday.

He was enroute home from church when he shot himself and fell dead at the feet of Miss Morrison, daughter of John Lewis Morrison, with whom he is said to have been keeping company. It is said that Miss Morrison declined to let Hutchinson accompany her home from church, and he stopped her as she was going home with another young man and asked her a question, to which she is said to have replied: "You know what I wrote in my letter." "Well, I can die at your feet," Hutchinson is said to have answered, and then shot himself through the heart.

The dead youth's father, Crockett Hutchinson, and a son were killed several years ago in a mine in West Virginia.

Leaps Into River And Makes Escape

Detective Bob Reno, of the N. & W. railway, and Police Officer Roy Moore, while engaged in searching camps along the Scioto river north of the city at midnight Tuesday surprised Floyd Smith in a houseboat. Smith saw them first and leaping into the river swam to the opposite shore, disappearing in the bottom.

Smith is a fugitive from justice.

He was arrested some months ago for alleged chicken stealing and was ordered returned to the Mansfield Reformatory from which institution he was under parole. Just as he and a field officer of the reformatory were approaching the N. & W. depot he made a sensational escape by pushing the officer almost on his face, he himself boarding an outgoing eastbound passenger train.

BASEBALL DERAILS CAR

Traffic on the street car line was delayed for 30 minutes late Tuesday afternoon when the front trucks of a westbound street car left the rails at Eleventh and Monroe streets. The derailment was caused by the front wheels of the car striking a base ball, which had rolled under them.

The car was in charge of Motorman Robert Strother and Conductor George Smith.

Jitney And Auto In A Smashup

Two automobiles, driven by George Blair and John Montz, collided at the corner of Twelfth and Lincoln streets about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, causing damage to both. The front part of Blair's machine was badly mashed down, the hood, fenders and axle being badly bent, while three tires were burst. Montz's car, a Jackson jitney, had a bent front axle, left front mud guard bent and a burst tire.

Montz was headed east on Twelfth and Blair south on Lincoln when the collision occurred. Mrs. Edward Holcomb and daughter, Mrs. James Edwards and her baby daughter were passengers in the jitney, but were uninjured. Neither of the drivers was injured.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It was what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."

—Mrs. Adoloso E. Baker, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one true and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Ladies' Friend, Pinkham's Compound, Co., Lynn, Mass.

IF JOE STOKLEY CAN'T RAISE ANY TOMATOES, WIFE CAN RAISE UMBRELLAS

It was a strange sight that met Officer Joe Stokley's gaze when he reached his home Tuesday noon. He found five umbrellas propped in his back yard. Inquiry developed the fact that some shade grown tomato plants he and wife had transplanted showed strong signs of withering under the fierce rays of the sun and so Mrs. Stokley hit upon the umbrella plan for sheltering them.

"JUDGMENT DAY" WAS DISCUSSED LAST NIGHT

"What Will Become of this Wicked?" will be the subject at the Gospel tent tonight, corner Gallia and Offshore streets.

"The Judgment Day" was discussed last night by Mr. M. V. Bussey, and a number of texts were read which speak of the "coming day." Paul's statement to the Corinthian church in plain and comprehensive: "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

Felix trembled as he looked into the future, when Paul reasoned of "righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come," and the speaker reasoned that since all are judgment bound, we should all be concerned sufficiently to prepare for the inevitable, since a complete record is being kept by the angels who faithfully and accurately record all that is done. Reference was made to Rev. 20: 12, which says: "The books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works."

Daniel's description is perhaps the most graphic. "The Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair

COMPLAINTS

Complaints about the bad condition of a bank at the Barclow property, No. 1316 Union street, have been referred to Dr. W. W. Smith, city health officer. A new vault will be ordered or the board of health will take action.

The city has asked Mrs. A. Funk to improve the property at No. 2214 Seventh street, with a new sidewalk.

Rarden Events

The M. E. church of Rarden was a scene most beautiful to behold on Sunday evening, it being their Children's Day service. The room was very elaborately decorated in the crimson rambling rose, the beautiful pure white hydrangea, the soft green fern and the stately palm.

The entire room was a bower of flowers, glorious in their shining beauty, and purity. The decoration was executed by all to be the most beautiful ever seen in our midst.

The following program was rendered from opening to closing without a single error, which is highly commendable considering the number of children in the entertainment.

Opening Song, "Are You Denying the Master?".....Choir
Remarks and Prayer, Rev. Upton Song, "Welcome Children's Day".....Class of Girls
Recitation, "Words of Welcome".....Pearl Scott
Song, "The Great Defender".....Virgie and Thelma Newman
Recitation, "Give Thanks For What".....Pearl Fetz
Duet, "It Was Jesus".....Mrs. Ballenger, Mrs. Southworth
Doll Drill.....Ten Small Girls
Recitation, "Remember Boys Make Men".....Everett Blackman
Song, "Master the Tempest Is Raging".....Choir
Lily Drill.....Sixteen Girls
Recitation, "Trouble Borrowers".....Virgie Newman
Quartette, N. H. Windle, J. E. Southworth, C. E. Thomas and Mrs. J. E. Southworth.
Recitation, "The Reason Why".....Thelma Newman
Anthem, "Eternal God".....Choir
Recitation, "The Settler's Story".....Mrs. Alton Snook
Duet, "He Keeps Me Singing".....Mrs. Southworth, Mrs. Thomas
Mother Goose Drill.....Sixteen Girls
Recitation, "The Drowning Singer".....Ethel Weaver
Song, "Who Giveth All".....Choir
Military Drill.....Fourteen Boys
Tableau and Pantomime, "At the Foot of the Cross".....Rev. Upton
The girls, recitations and the music certainly spoke for themselves in their rendition.

The Military Drill brought forth a rousing applause for they acquitted themselves very admirably. The closing feature, the tableau and pantomime "At the Foot of the Cross" was done in a very commendatory manner by Mrs. R. C. Blackburn, Mrs. W. V. Scott, Mrs. C. E. Thomas, the Misses Josie Clark, Norma Miller and Lillian Windle as the six guardian angels. The twelve small children looked very beautiful in their sweet innocence and purity, especially the five year old twins Frank and Fred Clark, sons of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Clark, who were kneeling at the foot of the cross.

The program which was witnessed by between five and six hundred people, was generally accorded to be the best ever seen in the village. The exercises were arranged and carried out under the supervision of Mrs. John F. Taylor with the assistance of a dozen more of the good women of the town, who worked earnestly and faithfully to the close with the grand success which crowned their efforts. Keep the good work going, the children now are our future men and women. Help them to make citizens any town may feel proud to own.

The Boy Scout movement will be started on Friday night at the M. E. church under M. H. F. Kinsey of Portsmouth. Let everybody take an interest in the boys and help them to better and higher things in life.

Fresh Air Camp Is To Be Ready For Use About July 1

The Fresh Air Camp of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Scioto county will probably be ready for the admission of patients on July first. After months of hard work the officials of the league are about to see their dream realized.

It would be difficult to find a more ideal location for such a purpose than the one selected on Mabert Road. It is less than a mile from the Gallia pike, on a high elevation overlooking one of the most picturesque scenes imaginable, with the city to the south, and fine farms, valleys and hills to the west and north.

The substantial camp house is well appointed, and has large wide verandas, well screened and with awnings, for outdoor living and sleeping. A nurse who has had considerable experience in a tuberculosis hospital in the east, will be in constant attendance, and physicians furnished when needed.

Any resident of Scioto County in the early or curable stage of tuberculosis or those tubercularly inclined, will be admitted. Those who are able will be expected to pay a very nominal fee. This institution offers great possibilities for good both from humanitarian and economic points of view.

The citizens of the county have been very liberal with their assistance in helping to make possible the establishment of this camp and the members of the league are duly thankful.

Prof. Creveling May Return To Peerless

Prof. J. D. Creveling, former principal of the Portsmouth high school, now employed by the Logan Gas company, writes friends in this city that he has been offered a splendid position by one of Portsmouth's largest concerns and will probably accept the same. In the event that he accepts the offer he will return here on July 4, ready to enter upon his new duties. He also states that he was offered the principalship of the schools in a city five times as large as Portsmouth, closing his letter by saying his friends need exercise no concern over his future, as he has all sorts of flattering offers.

He receives a splendid salary with the Logan Gas company as construction engineer and this concern is anxious to give him a steady and permanent position. He is now doing work for this company at Bangs, Ohio, his family being at Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

LOCAL MEN BEAT HARD, DELAWARE MAN NAMED TO BIG STATE OFFICE

Columbus, O., June 23—Governor Willis, late Tuesday, appointed Herbert L. Eliot, of Delaware, to succeed Prof. M. B. Hammond as a member of the state industrial commission. His term is for six years. Mr. Eliot is manager of the Delaware branch of the National Fire Proofing Company and was an original Willis booster. Other members of the commission are T. J. Duffy and Wallace D. Yapple.

The outcome of the struggle for the place indicates that in the end it narrowed down between Vice Chairman Charles B. Hard, of Portsmouth, representing the Republican State Executive Committee, and Mr. Eliot. Mr. Hard was there Monday, and when he left for home was satisfied that the Delaware man would be the choice of the governor.

Mr. Hard's name was urged up on the governor by United States Senator Warren G. Harding, and it is said that he would have handed the place but for opposition in his home county which was voiced to the governor by former Congressman Bannan, County Clerk Roy McElhenny, member of the state executive committee Geo. A. Ditty, Hon. William S. Sellards, the original Willis man of Scioto county, and others of their supporters who protested to fear that Hard's appointment would militate against other aspirants who are after minor positions.

CLAIMS HUSBAND TRIED TO TERRIFY HER INTO LEAVING

An unusual method of extreme cruelty was practiced by James Amelin, an employee of Henry Ruel, of this city, if the allegations embodied in a divorce petition filed in common pleas court this morning, on behalf of his wife, Clara Amelin, by Blair and Kimble, are true.

Mrs. Amelin claims that he frequently visited her home on Slab Run at night, pounded on the windows and doors, and made strange sounds about the buildings for the purpose of terrifying her so that she would leave the premises to him. She also alleges that he broke open the doors to her smokehouse and other buildings and appropriated ham, meats, garden produce and other articles belonging to her for his own use, thus depriving her of a livelihood, as the articles were intended for market.

She alleges that one day this month, while she was on her way to Portsmouth with produce for market, her husband stopped her and told her that he expected to arm himself with a shot-gun and that he was coming to her house with the intention of killing some one, a statement which she took unto herself, she says.

Another alleged act complained of was the theft of her horse and buggy on June 18th, she charging that her husband took it from a place where she had left it hitched on the west side of the river, the bridge having been washed away. She values the horse and buggy at $200, and secured a temporary injunction restraining her husband from disposing of it pending the hearing of the suit.

This is the second time in the last few weeks that Mrs. Amelin has filed suit for divorce. The petition filed a few weeks ago was withdrawn after the couple had temporarily patched up their differences. They were married March 22, 1909, and have no children.

DILL ESTATE IS CLOSED

The first and final account of Harry L. Hartman, administrator of the estate of the late Joseph Dill, colored, was filed in probate court Wednesday. It shows receipts aggregating $4907.65, with expenditures of like amount, leaving nothing to be distributed among the heirs.

In the list of receipts is included an item of $4030.00, the receipts of the saloon on Eleventh street owned by the deceased, which was operated after his death from December 10, last, to May 21, 1915, by the administrator. The cost of operation during the same period was $409.33, a net loss of $378.73 during that period. Cash belonging to the deceased amounting to $159.88 was turned over to the administrator while a sale of the personal property brought $777.07, making a grand total of $4907.65.

To the cost of operating the saloon is added the funeral expenses, some minor debts, probate court fees, an allowance to Hartman as administrator of $183.85, and an allowance of $126 to J. P. Purdum as attorney's fees.

PEDDLERS TABBOOED

"THAT PORK" IS "HIS PORK"

The Logan, O., Republican, in its Old People's Corner, and under the caption "That Pork," reproduces the following from the Scioto Gazette of June 12, 1911:

"Our readers may remember that we copied from a Portsmouth paper an account of a barrel of pork having been found, unopened, in the old bed of the Scioto, where the water has not run for twenty years. Thomas James, Esq., says that pork is his. In 1804, forty-seven years ago, he informs us, that he chartered the brig Dominique, built and owned by Dudley Woodbridge and manned by Daniel Russell at Marietta, and intended to load the vessel at the mouth of the Scioto. In taking down the pork from Chilliote to the Scioto, and 35 barrels were lost. The water was very high and Mr. James claims that the barrel found is one of the thirty-five which floated to the spot in which it was found.

By the way, he adds that John McCarty, Esq., (another pioneer merchant of Chilliote) was a partner in the pork operation, and the adventure was of the first pork ever taken out of our river, except 200 barrels, which Mr. James carried South the year before, viz: 1903. At the time the barrel was lost Mr. James was enroute to the West Indies, where he sold his charge and

"WE'LL NOT BE INTIMIDATED BY BRAGGADOCIO OF YANKEES," DECLARES MEXICAN GENERAL

"WE WILL BATTLE THESE INVADERS AND DRIVE THEM FROM MEXICO" HE SAYS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press)
Mexico City, June 5—President Wilson's recent declaration on the Mexican question has created a sensation in this capital and throughout the federal district. The public is warm in its praise of the spirit of fair mindedness and friendship shown by the American executive, but the military leaders are somewhat careful in their comment. President Garza has received the following letter on the subject from General Emiliano Zapata, brother of General Emiliano Zapata. It can be taken as a sample of what some of the revolutionists think in this connection:
"Quila, June 1, 1915.
"Answering your message of today referring to intervention, can only say that we are Mexicans. Two times before this

WASHINGTON AWAITS GREAT BRITAIN'S NOTE

Washington, June 23.—Great Britain's note concerning measures taken by the British government to mitigate the hardships suffered by neutral traders under the order in council was awaited today by officials of the American government. It was expected that the memorandum which has been handed to Ambassador Page by the British foreign office, would be immediately transmitted to Washington.
While the British memorandum probably will be taken into consideration before the American note to Great Britain, now in course of preparation, is finally prepared for transmission, it was said that it would affect the sending of the communication. The note will reiterate the American protest against the illegality of the principles in the order in council. When this communication would be dispatched has not been determined.
It is now necessary to land marines and bluejackets who are held in readiness for that purpose, unless adequate protection is not given Americans by the Mexican forces.

Death Came When Motorcycle Bumped Into A Pierce Arrow

The Lexington, Ky. Herald contained the following story of the collision that resulted in the violent death Sunday of a nephew of Earl Warren, brother of the late president.

Walter T. Prattler, 24 years old, an insurance collector with the National Life Insurance Company, with offices in the Merrick Lodge Building, while riding toward Lexington about a mile, on the Richmond Pike on a recently purchased Excelsior motorcycle Sunday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, received fatal injuries when his motorcycle bumped into the big heavy motor car, more than tearing a gash in the left front wheel and bending the lamp and fender slightly.

Burt Brown, the chauffeur, when seen Sunday night soon after the accident, was in such a state of nervousness that he could not relate the details. He was very much disturbed over the affair and said he could not understand why Prattler did not turn out, as there was ample room for him to do so, he declared. He also stated that about two weeks ago Prattler came near hitting him as he was driving on the Harrodsburg Pike.

Prattler on March 6 ran over L. J. Miller at the corner of Short and Broadway, breaking his leg, the injury confining him to the Good Samaritan hospital for several weeks.

As soon as the tire on the Dodge machine could be replaced the party drove to Lexington and to the police station to report the accident. Chief Reagan and Chief Brown arrested Mr. Dodge and placed him under a charge of breach of the peace by assault with an auto. Mr. Dodge was released on bond.

We were out on a pleasure trip on the highway and driving along at a very moderate rate. We saw the motorcycle coming several hundred yards away, approaching at a rate which I would not place at less than forty miles, and I think nearer sixty miles an hour. There was plenty of room—some twenty feet—

Rejected By A Girl Shoots Self; Falls Dead At Her Feet

Ashland, Ky., June 22.—Wallace Hutchinson, aged twenty-two years, who lived with his widowed mother on Hood's Creek about four miles from Ashland, shot himself through the heart Saturday.

He was enroute home from church when he shot himself and fell dead at the feet of Miss Morrison, daughter of John Irwin Morrison, with whom he is said to have been keeping company. It is said that Miss Morrison declined to let Hutchinson accompany her home from church, and he stopped her as she was going home with another young man and asked her a question, to which she is said to have replied: "You know what I wrote in my letter?" "Well, I can die at your feet," Hutchinson is said to have answered and then shot himself through the heart.

The dead youth's father, Crockett Hutchinson, and a son, were killed several years ago in a mine in West Virginia.

LARGE WAR ORDERS ARE CANCELLED

Seattle, Wash., June 22.—Cancellation of large war shipments to Russia by manufacturers who are said to be unable to obtain cash payments for the products, are announced here.

The Great Northern Steamship Company announced that the Minnesota probably would not include Vladivostok as a port of call on her next voyage.

The Minnesota was expected to sail directly from Seattle to Vladivostok June 27, with practically a full cargo for the Russian government. Seventy-five percent of these shipments have been cancelled by manufacturers and it is supposed the Minnesota probably will follow her usual route to Hong Kong.

The above half-tone is a splendid likeness of Charles McCormick, "The Peerless Booster," candidate of the Republican ticket for the nomination of mayor of Portsmouth. Mr. McCormick stands squarely for a bigger, better and cleaner city. Indications point strongly not only to his nomination at the primaries in August, but also to his election in November, as the next mayor of Portsmouth. adv

"WE WILL FIGHT YANKEE INVADERS"

We have been threatened as if we were children. I am not sure that you would care to make public my ideas about this matter. If these northerners do not wish to take into consideration the rights as guardians of Mexico, if they deem us weak and incapable of defending our beloved country, if they consider it honorable to allow a great nation to sink a ship like the Lusitania with impunity and then to resort to nix in our political affairs simply because they are strong, then I say let hostilities break out. Let them bombard our ports with their great squadrons, as we have no warships. It does not matter.

Let them send millions of their soldiers. We will fight them. But, never will the Mexican be intimidated by the brag, gadoodle of the Yankees.

If I compromise myself by these expressions, I and my followers accept all responsibility. We will answer with our lives if necessary. We will beat these invaders and drive them from Mexico.

Our country and history will later serve us with glory for not running as cowards before this powerful nation, that wishes to crush us for committing no greater crime than that of fighting for liberty. Although we are incomparably smaller, we are more patriotic. We have no arms nor have we ammunition, but we have breasts wherein to receive bullets. You may use the above in such manner as your patriotism may dictate.

(Signed) EUFEMIO ZAPATA.

General Roque Gonzales Garza was deposed as president of Mexico June 10.

TWO MEN HURT WHEN AUTO AND BUS CRASH

Two traveling men were slightly injured and an interstate auto bus slightly damaged in a collision with an eastbound Hilltop street car at Eighth and Chillicothe streets about midnight Tuesday night.

The auto bus was returning from the late Cincinnati train on the N. & W., and was headed west on Eighth street for the Washington hotel at a speed of about twelve miles an hour when the collision occurred. The street car was coming north on Chillicothe street at a fair rate of speed.

Andy Clark, the driver of the auto bus, seeing that a collision was inevitable, attempted to turn north on Chillicothe street, but the car sideswiped his automobile and the force of the collision threw it against the gas post near the corner.

Carl N. Cleveland, a traveling salesman from Cleveland, who was a passenger in the auto bus, was thrown across the bus, and his head struck some object, inflicting a gash over his left eye.

The other passenger, O. M. Cullen, superintendent of the Curtis Ward Construction company, C. & O. Northern grade contractors, who makes his home at the Washington hotel, slightly injured his arm in the fall inside the bus, but he was all right this morning.

Dr. H. A. Schirrmann, who lives just opposite the scene of the accident, attended the men before they were taken to the Washington.

The auto bus was only slightly damaged, according to interstate officials this morning who said it would be running before the day was over. The fender and running board on one side were badly bent, and other minor damages.

The street car was manned by E. A. Daniels, motorman, and Harold Brudy, conductor. Daniels promptly applied the brakes when the auto bus lay in sight, but he did not have time in which to come to a complete stop before he hit it.

Miss Sadie Blackburn of Twelfth street, met with a painful accident a week ago by falling and spraining her right ankle. She is improving slowly.

Leaps Into River And Makes Escape

Detective Bob Reno, of the N. & W. railway, and Police Officer Roy Moore, while engaged in searching camps along the Scioto river north of the city at midnight Tuesday surprised Floyd Smith in a houseboat. Smith saw them first and leaping into the river, swam to the opposite shore, disappearing in the bottoms. Smith is a fugitive from justice.

He was arrested some months ago for alleged chicken stealing and was ordered returned to the Mansfield Reformatory from which institution he was under parole. Just as he and a field officer of the reformatory were approaching the N. & W. depot he made a sensational escape by pushing the officer almost on his face, he himself boarding an outgoing eastbound passenger train.

The teachers formed a union at the time they decided not to take the examination.

WARDEN WILL SEEK MURDERER HIMSELF

Joliet, Ill., June 23.—Edmund Allen, warden of the penitentiary, whose wife was slain, and her body burned in their apartments at the prison on Sunday, plans personally to seek out the slayer from among the 1,800 convicts, it became known today. Warden Allen plans to assume personal charge of the investigation after the inquest is resumed tomorrow.

The investigation was continued today for more evidence to be presented tomorrow and the convicts held under suspicion were subjected to another questioning.

BASEBALL DERAILS CAR

Traffic on the street car line was delayed for 30 minutes late Tuesday afternoon when the front trucks of a westbound street car left the rails at Eleventh and Monroe streets. The derailment was caused by the front wheels of the car striking a base ball, which had rolled under them.

The car was in charge of Motorman Robert Strother and Conductor George Smith.

STATES FOLLOW OHIO

Sandles of the agricultural commission, said today. They are New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Indiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Colorado and Oregon.

Jitney And Auto In A Smashup

Two automobiles, driven by George Blair and John Moatz, collided at the corner of Twelfth and Lincoln streets about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, causing damage to both. The front part of Blair's machine was badly mashed down, the hood, fenders and axle being badly bent, while three tires were burst. Moatz's car, a Jackson jitney, had a bent front axle, left front mud guard bent and a burst tire.

Moatz was headed east on Twelfth and Blair south on Lincoln when the collision occurred. Mrs. Edward Holcomb and daughter, Mrs. James Edwards and her baby daughter were passengers in the jitney, but were uninjured. Neither of the drivers was injured.

WANTS BOARD BILL PAID

The mayor has addressed a letter to the state industrial commission in the interest of Mrs. R. Lee Nickel, 915 Fourth street. She claims to have furnished room and board for one W. B. Fay throughout last winter. He was hurt in a bridge accident and promised to settle with her in one lump sum, declaring he would receive $900 from the commission.

Summoned before the mayor a few days ago and asked what he proposed doing he said he would pay Mrs. Nickel the sum allowed him, $80. Some days after, according to the mayor's letter, he received a check for $12 and refused to give Mrs. Nickel, any part thereof, instead leaving the city. The mayor urges the commission to hold the balance due him and allow it to the woman who denied herself most everything in order to accommodate Fay and his wife.

New Clothing Firm Leases Distel Room

J. Goldstein, of Columbus, has secured a lease on a 20 by 30 room in the Distel block at Seventh and Chillicothe streets and will open a clothing and gent's furnishing store in it on or about August 15. The room adjoins the one recently leased in the same building by Charles Weber, Chillicothe street shoe merchant.

James Distel, of the Distel Furniture company, announced today that the firm would probably lease another room in the building and that the proposed new addition from the rear would be built right away.

Mr. Goldstein plans to open a strictly first-class store, and it is quite probable that it will be managed by a local man. The store is to receive an attractive front and the firm will carry the best goods on the market.

Be Practical. He does rather than critics of the facts that others do. Stand stoutly for your ideals, but keep in mind that they can only be realized, even partially, by practical methods of achievement.—Theresa Roosevelt.
